AEG are delighted to offer this 2013 Eddis Crusader Shamal. The Eddis Crusader Shamal is a luxurious four-berth single-axle tourer. This caravan features a spacious end bathroom complete with a domestic-style shower unit, the new Thetford electric-flush toilet and a granite-effect basin. Two fixed single beds to the rear and a convertible double at the front all have wide-opening spring-assisted beech wood slatted bases allowing for easy access too. Meanwhile, the kitchen area is fully-equipped to rustle up a hearty dinner, with the granite-effect sink for cleaning up afterwards. Plenty of storage, an extractor fan, Spinflo oven, three-ring hob and external barbeque point all add to the high-quality features boasted by the Shamal. A very stylish model, the Crusader Shamal has chrome fixtures and fittings throughout, boasting the same specifications as the larger twin-axle Crusader models. A Heki Deluxe tilting rooflight in the main area and an additional rooflight in the washroom...
